WEST FLORIDA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY 2025 CONFERENCE

Cheri Hudson Passey has been researching her family and helping others start their research since the early 1980s. She is the owner of Carolina Girl Genealogy, and her blog of the same name has been instrumental in connecting with family and sharing information about the research process. She works with the U.S. Army, assisting in efforts to repatriate soldiers listed as Killed in Action. She is a member of the National Genealogical Society, the Association of Professional Genealogists, South Carolina Historical Society, South Carolina Genealogical Society, North Carolina Genealogical Society, and several South Carolina Genealogy. Societies. Cheri will appear virtually.

Lynn Schlick is president of the Alabama Genealogical Society and past director of the Birmingham and Columbiana FamilySearch Centers for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She is a member of the Shelby County Historical Society and Prince William County Historical Society. Awards include the Alabama Senior Citizens Hall of Fame – Religion Award 2021; FamilySearch Heart Specialist for excellence in family history research; and FamilySearch Ambassador, the highest award given for accomplishments in family history research. She is the author of four books, including The Blue Record Hints Box: A New Twist to Genealogy Research During the Pandemic. Lynn will appear virtually.
